A surprising geography

Peru houses three natural zones: the Pacific coast, the Andean mountain range and the Amazon rainforest.

A diverse climate

The country's geography spans a wide range of climates, from humid tropical regions to the frozen peaks of the Andes.

A century of tourism

Peru has been a tourist destination for over a century, offering a rich cultural and historical experience.

ECOLOGY

Peru is home to a diverse range of wildlife, including hundreds of colorful birds and other species.

Biodiversity

The country's biodiversity is recognized worldwide, with a wide range of flora and fauna.

THE PEOPLE

Peruvians are known for their hospitality and warmth, welcoming visitors with open arms.

ACCESSIBILITY

Peru is easily accessible by air and land, with a well-developed network of airports and highways.

MODERNITY

While valuing its rich cultural heritage, Peru is also modernizing, with a vibrant urban life and a growing economy.

PERU'S capital

Lima is a vibrant city with a rich history, offering a blend of traditional and modern attractions.

A tour of Lima's streets

Lima's streets are filled with colorful murals and vibrant markets, reflecting the city's cultural diversity.

Las Rejas Palace

The palace, built in the 17th century, is a beautiful example of colonial architecture.

Ancestral Heritage

The city is home to the remains of ancient civilizations, including the Inca Empire.

The imperial city

Cusco was the capital of the Inca Empire and is now a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Sacred Valley

This area is home to the ancient Inca ruins of Machu Picchu, a Unesco World Heritage site.

Lake Titicaca

This lake is the world's highest navigable lake and is a popular tourist destination.

Ica

The desert region of Ica is known for its wine and historical ruins.

National Museum of Archaeology

This museum houses a large collection of Inca artifacts and other cultural treasures.

The White City

Arequipa, known as the "White City," is known for its colonial architecture.

Paracas National Reserve

This reserve is home to a diverse range of flora and fauna, including pelicans and parakeets.

Nasca

The Nasca Lines, a series of ancient geoglyphs, are located in this desert region.

Los Angeles

The city is home to the La Brea Tar Pits, a site of ancient tar pits.

Madrid

This capital city is known for its rich art history and cultural scene.

Paris

The city is renowned for its romantic appeal and historical sites.

Barcelona

This city is famous for its architecture, art, and lifestyle.

Córdoba

The city is known for its rich history and cultural scene.

Salta

This city is known for its rich history and cultural scene.

Santa Cruz

This city is known for its rich history and cultural scene.

Orlando

The city is known for its theme parks and entertainment options.

Los Angeles

The city is known for its rich history and cultural scene.

Paris

The city is renowned for its romantic appeal and historical sites.

Barcelona

This city is famous for its architecture, art, and lifestyle.

Córdoba

The city is known for its rich history and cultural scene.

Salta

This city is known for its rich history and cultural scene.

Santa Cruz

This city is known for its rich history and cultural scene.

Orlando

The city is known for its theme parks and entertainment options.

Travel

There are many ways to get around Peru, including by bus, train, and plane.

Food

Peruvian cuisine is renowned for its variety and flavor, with dishes like ceviche and lomo saltado.

Language

Spanish is the official language of Peru.
Peru: 10 destinations you cannot miss

One visit is not enough to discover all of Peru’s wonders. To better prepare your trip here are ten destinations you cannot miss. Plan your stay and enjoy it with all your senses.